

nationalism

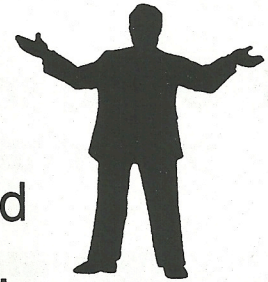

1. NATIONALISM is a sense of belonging and loyalty to a racial, linguistic, or historical group living in a particular place.

read

2. Nationalism promoted the organization and consolidation of nation states in Europe during the 19th century.

O CANADA..

3. Literacy, industrialization, and technological advances encouraged nationalism.

4. Nationalism, or a national identity, contributed to imperialism, militarism, and expansionism.

write

Patriotism, sovereignty, ultranationalism, self-determination, and supranationalism are terms related to nationalism. Explore the meanings of these terms with the help of a dictionary, then write your own description of nationalism.

To what extent should governments encourage nationalism among its citizens?

think